

Promotional Copy for To Laugh, To Laugh, L'Chaim

Comedian David Glickman presents To Laugh, To Laugh, L'Chaim. Audiences from coast to coast have enjoyed David's popular musical comedy show that celebrates "What's So Funny About Being Jewish."

To Laugh, To Laugh, L'Chaim includes over 40 song parodies, observational humor, funny visuals, and laugh-out-loud stories that all combine for an exciting entertainment experience.

David explains that the show has been designed for audiences to enjoy "Hilarious Renditions of Jewish traditions." He promises that the material is clean, clever, and kosher!

David Glickman has been a professional comedian and keynote speaker for over 25 years and has presented over 2,000 programs. He's worked with Steve Martin, he's been the opening act for Ellen DeGeneres, and he even performed at Gloria Estefan's birthday party. He has appeared on "Evening at the Improv" and several other national television shows. David is the author of Speaking of Funny: 77 Ways to Add Humor to Any Presentation and has been inducted into the Speaker Hall of Fame.